Corresponding Membership: $30.00 annual dues.

Corresponding Membership is for those interested individuals who live outside the immediate area and/or cannot attend meetings. Corresponding members receive the Newsletter and have all privileges of Associate members except direct participation in technical activities, (unless he/she is sponsored by a Administrative/Associate member). There is no age limit for corresponding membership.

Associate Membership: $35.00 annual dues.

Associate members are "active" members who have all the privileges of Administrative members except that of serving as a project or testing chief or in any other manner being in charge of the Team's technical or scientific activity. They are not eligible to vote at meetings of the membership or for officers of the Team or hold office themselves. Associate membership is an initial active membership and can lead to an Administrative membership with approval of the Executive Council after certain Team requirements are met. Associate members must be 18 years or older.

Corporate Sponsor Membership: $100 minimum annual dues.

Corporate Sponsor Membership is for interested companies who wish to sponsor the Team's activities. Corporate Sponsor Members have none of the regular member privileges except to receive the Newsletter. Their logo will appear on the Web site and in the monthly newsletter for the duration of their membership in the sponsor section.

Administrative Membership: $50.00 annual dues. Approved By: _____

Administrative members can serve as a project or testing chief or in any other manner being in charge of a Team's technical or scientific activity. They are eligible to vote at meetings of the membership or for officers of the Team or hold office themselves. Administrative members must be 18 years or older. The Executive Council is made up of the elected officers from the administrative members.
